House Check Program

The Elizabethtown Police Department's House Check Program is designed to help keep your home secure while you are away on vacation. We are pleased to offer this program free of charge for all residents. The police department will do their best to ensure the security of your home while you are away, but cannot be held responsible for any theft or damage that may occur.

In order for us to properly assist you, it is important for you to print this form and provide as much information as possible; then return by fax, mail, or in person.
